

2011 Martinez Gallery Holiday Boutique Application

Dear MAA members:

This year, the Holiday Boutique -Made in U.S.A. (Our theme) will be strictly controlled for Quality Arts and Crafts. We have limited space at the Gallery. Therefore, a maximum of 10 participants will be accepted. We encourage you to apply as soon as possible. The event will start on November 28 and will end December 24, 2011.

The deadline for application (November 14) and bringing in samples of your products to be juried between 1 November and November 14. Members who are not selected for the event will be informed on November 18 (Friday) or earlier. You must pickup your items no later than before Thanksgiving weekend.

Members who are selected for the show must bring in all their items before Thanksgiving weekend and pay the required $15 fee at that time. If you are late, you will be replaced with someone on the waiting list. Gallery Board members have the right to decline any items. Gallery will not be responsible for any items damaged during the event or after 24th December 2011. Please come to pick up your remaining items by January 4.

RULES- (no exception).

1. Must be MAA member (Current) and need a copy of seller's permit.
2. Make your own items/craft. No made in China stuff. (Jury will be there to remove).
3. $15 – Fee for approximately one month event. 15% of sale must also be donated to MAA.
4. All items must have price tag with crafter's name. Items without tags will be removed.
5. You will be assigned 2 days (4 hours each day) to volunteer at the gallery and promote your craft and others. If you do not show up your assignment, gallery has the right to remove your items. If you have an emergency, you request for another shift ASAP.
